publisher description

the first full study of the role of little magazines and their contribution to the making of artistic modernism and the avant garde across europe this volume is a major scholarly achievement of immense value to those interested in material culture of the twentieth century since world war ii aesthetic impulses generated in italy have swept through every film industry in the world and in her book mira liehm analyses the roots in literature philosophy and contemporary italian life which have contributed to this extraordinary vigor an introductory chapter offers a unique overview of the italian cinema before 1942 it is followed by a full and profound discussion of neorealism in its heyday its difficult aftermath in the fifties the glorious sixties and finally by an analysis of the contemporary cinematic crisis mira liehm has known personally many of the leading figures in italian cinema and her work is rich in insights into their lives and working methods this impressive scholarly work immediately outclasses all other available Italian film histories it will be essential reading for anyone seriously interested in the cinema the emergence of cinema as a predominant form of mass entertainment in the 1910s inspired intellectuals to rethink their definitions of art the great black spider on its knock kneed tripod traces the encounter of Italy's writers with cinema and in doing so offers vibrant new perspectives on the country's early twentieth century culture this comparative study focuses on the immediate responses to this cultural phenomenon of three highly influential intellectuals each with a competing aesthetic vision Filippo Tommaso Marinetti founder of futurism Gabriele D'Annunzio leader of Italian decadentism and Luigi Pirandello a father of modern European theatre and theorist of humour along with demonstrating how the popularization of the feature length narrative influenced each author's outlook and theories Michael Syrimis unravels the extent to which cinema enforced or neutralized the ideological and aesthetic differences between them

This reference work is comprised of two volumes treating the Middle Ages and the Renaissance three volumes on the Romantics and four volumes dealing with twentieth century authors Scholar's new to literary history and criticism should find the balanced well written essays on included authors a solid introduction
